DIGITAL ACCESS WAIVER
The digital resources provided by the El Valle Community Center Villanueva Library are selected to be appropriate for use by children and students. Access to these resources does not require access to other online information, but any use of the internet creates the potential for engagement with other online materials. The library cannot control non-library information distributed through the Internet and is not responsible for any online information that is accessed beyond what is provided through the library's portal and catalog. Parents and guardians are responsible for supervising computer and internet use for the children in their charge. The library supports online services and computer use undertaken in support of educational goals and objectives.

I have read and understand the above waiver. By signing, I give the library permission to create a library account in the name of the minor named above.
